1. My intuitive instincts rather impel me to reject the attached proposed staffing complement prepared by OCS, primarily based on certain obviously inflated grades. On the other hand, [REDACTED] tells me that it might be better to transmit this proposal to you in its entirety so that at least we may get the matter into proper hands and start the necessary official study. On balance I agree with his judgment and forward this to you but only with the clear understanding that we are cognizant of unsupportable requested (over)
